"LADY AUDLEY'S SECRET"

A Society Drama by Miss M. E. Braddon.

Lady Audley is handed a letter by her husband to read. It is from his nephew who is coming home and bringing a friend with him. This friend happens to be a man whom Lady Audley had married years before, the son of a wealthy parent who disinherited him for marrying against their wishes. The son left his wife and went to Australia to gain a fortune. His wife alone and destitute marries Lord Audley. She sees her chance for happiness fading rapidly. What should she do? What could she do? The answer forms one of the most dramatic climaxes ever thrown on the screen and affords Theda Bara full scope for her wonderful powers of dramatic and emotional expression.

RESTRICTIONS AT COLLEGE LIFTED

College Boys Hear Welcome News. Harmonious Method of Coping with Scarlet Fever Situation Proves Successful.

Following instructions received from the State Department of Health, Dr. Henry Stewart, secretary of the local board, at noon to-day lifted the ban at Gettysburg College on students leaving town. The announcement was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm for it allows the teams to go away for their Thursday games and all the boys, who wish to, to go home for Thanksgiving Day. The majority will take advantage of the opportunity.

The lifting of the ban will not, of course, affect the quarantine on the observatory where the two scarlet fever patients are now confined, and they will remain there until the expiration of the usual period. Should there be any further outbreak of the disease the former restrictions on students leaving town will again be out into effect.

It is not believed, however, that there will be any spread of the contagion. There is no indication now of any of the students having symptoms and, as it is a week since the two cases were discovered, it is believed the prompt and vigorous action taken to avoid any further trouble was effective.

The college authorities are most appreciative of the considerate treatment accorded both by the State Health Department and Dr. Stewart, of the local Board of Health. The restrictions imposed were as lenient as consistent with enforcing the laws and every concession was made that could be granted under the provisions of the local and State laws. All concerned worked in harmony throughout the week.

Of the number of boys who fled from the school almost all have returned. Comparatively few went to their own homes, but visited friends instead, and they returned as soon as they learned that the institution would not be quarantined. Of those who went home practically all were found by the State Health Department and they at once put ten day quarantines on the premises, so that the frightened boys now realize how foolish they were to leave here.

The foot ball team plays Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster on Thursday, and the Reserves will meet Millersville Normal School at Millersville. It would have been a matter of great disappointment to all concerned if either or both of these games had been cancelled.

DEDUCT FROM CLAIMS

County the Loser by Reason of State's Attitude.

By a recent ruling the county commissioners will pay no more bounty claims for goshawks shot in this county, the State authorities claiming there are no such birds in Pennsylvania. From the total bills of $2835 submitted to the State for bounties paid $75 was deducted on account of justices' returns improperly made, and other errors in the original claims.

ELKS PLAN THEIR LODGE OF SORROW

Harrisburg Attorney will Deliver Memorial Address at Annual Service in Theatre. Philadelphia Singers will be here also.

Gettysburg Lodge of Elks will hold their annual lodge of sorrow in Walter's Theatre on Sunday afternoon, December 5, when members of the order all over the country gather in similar session to hold memorial services for their departed brothers.

Benjamin M. Nead Esq., of Harrisburg, has been chosen to make the memorial address. Mr. Nead is a prominent attorney in the Capital City and an orator of recognized ability. He is a past exalted ruler of Harrisburg Lodge of Elks. The eulogy will be delivered by John D. Keith Esq., of Gettysburg.

The special musical numbers of the program will be provided by two soloists from Philadelphia. The committee has not yet announced their names or the selections which they will render. The usual ritualistic services held on the occasion of the lodge of sorrow will again form a portion of the program.

During the past year only one member of the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks has been taken by death. That was John S. Ziegler who died during the early autumn.

The arrangements for this year's lodge of sorrow are in the hands of the following committee: Edgar Dearthoff, Charles W. Stock, and Charles W. Gardner. Admission, as in other years, will be by ticket.

OF MISS STAHL

Franklin County Paper Has Much to Say. Her Popularity.

The "Valley Spirit" of Chambersburg has this to say of Miss Sarah Stahl, who is soon to become a resident of Gettysburg:

Miss Sarah Stahl, of Buchanan Valley, had a sale at the old post office and store building on Saturday preparatory to her removal to Gettysburg. Miss Stahl was long the postmistress there and kept a live country store.

Miss Stahl has resided in the house she is vacating for thirty five years past. For many years she was one of the most popular and prepossessing of the school teachers of her county. She had much fame in sports during the duller winter seasons, and yet has occasional use for a fast-flying coaster she had made after her own design twenty eight years ago.

Miss Stahl has always been conspicuous in the church and social life of her beautiful valley. Young beaux now grown to shadowing manhood recall inditing crude but flattering rhymes to "the belle of Buchanan" meaning the maiden Miss Stahl.

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRY

Youthful County Couples Secure Marriage Licenses here.

Clerk of the Courts Olinger has issued marriage licenses to the following:

Earl R. Strasbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Strasbaugh, of New Oxford; and Miss Eva Genetta Staub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Staub, of Oxford township.

George Yeatts, son of Mrs. Annie C. Yeatts, of Bendersville; and Miss Carrie Markle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Markle, of Biglerville.

The combined ages of the four persons to be married total only 76 years, the youngest being 17, and the oldest 21.

SIGN CONTRACT FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Company of Thirty will Render Mikado or Another Opera. Victor's Band, Maud Ballington Booth and Other Attractions.

The apparently abandoned project of a 1916 Chautauqua has been revived, and so successfully revived that the week of education and entertainment is believed to be assured. Of the thirty guarantors who must sign the contract for next summer's course twenty four have already been secured and the other six will be obtained before evening, it is thought.

Local people connected with the Chautauqua movement decided, some time since not to sign a contract for 1915, on account of the shortage in the ticket sale and on account of what was considered too small a list of guarantors. The action taken at that time was communicated to Dr. Paul M. Pearson of the Pennsylvania Chautauqua Association at Swarthmore and he decided to take the matter directly in charge. For this purpose Miss Grace Hershey, who is known well here through her connection with Chautauqua work in other years, is now in town and securing the signatures necessary to make the contract satisfactory.

At the 1915 Chautauqua and immediately following, there were secured pledges for 625 tickets, amounting to $1250. The Chautauqua Association asks the pledge of 700 tickets for a total of $1400. Junior tickets, few of which were pledged last summer for next year, will count as one half of a full ticket.

As the Junior Chautauqua is growing steadily in its popularity, it is believed that there will be no difficulty securing enough to make the required amount, while there may yet be some others who desire the full $2.00 ticket.

Even at this early date the strength of next year's program is apparent. It is expected to be the best since Chautauqua was first brought here. Among the attractions will be a company of thirty persons which will give one of the two operas "The Chimes of Normandy" or "The Mikado." Victor's Band will again be on the program, and Maud Ballington Booth will be another attraction. Lincoln Wirt, direct from the trenches of Europe, will deliver a lecture, and the course will include the usual number of high grade musical companies, entertainers, and lecturers.

Realizing that Gettysburg cannot afford to let such an opportunity pass by, public spirited citizens are adding their names to the list of guarantors. These guarantors and others who are interested will meet at the Court House at eight o'clock this evening so that the entire plan may be fully explained to them, and so that all may have a definite understanding before the contract is finally signed. All are very strongly urged to be present.

WILL OBSERVE THANKSGIVING

Religious and Social Features of the Day will not be Lacking in Gettysburg's Plans. Many Family Reunions Arranged.

Gettysburg will celebrate its Thanksgiving Day in true old fashioned style, with its turkey, duck, and chicken dinners, and reunions in many homes. The day has come to be one of the big home-coming occasions of the entire year and scores of Gettysburg families will welcome back their members for the annual gathering and the mid-day feast.

Every train is bringing in Gettysburg's "boys and girls" who have cast their lots in other places and are making good there but want to come back to spend the day and have the time honored dinner about their home table.

The religious significance of the day will not be lost. Services have been announced for four of the churches, in the Church of the Prince of Peace, St. Francis Xavier Church and the Church of the Brethren in the morning, and the union service in the College Church in the evening, with the sermon by Rev. W. R. Glen, the United Brethren pastor.

The service in the Catholic church will be at eight o'clock, in the Brethren and Episcopal churches at ten o'clock; and at the College church at 7:30 p. m.

The day will be observed as a holiday generally throughout the county. Banks, stores, and mills will be closed while some of the schools will have one day of vacation. In Gettysburg the schools closed this afternoon not to re-open before Monday. Some county districts also did this, believing that the two sessions on Friday would scarcely be worth while with the holiday before and after.

Many informal parties and other social affairs have been planned for the remainder of the week in Gettysburg homes and the usual favors suitable to the season will be in evidence. The county, too, will observe the season in its usual way, both as a religious festival and as a time for family gatherings and social events.

MORE SCHOOLS WORKING DAILY

List now Totals More than a Hundred. Suggestions for those who are Really Working will be Published in this Column Daily.

A school teacher in the upper end of the county, when approached concerning her attitude towards The Times subscription plan, said "Indeed I do want to take it up for our school. I remarked to another teacher when this plan was announced at Institute, 'There does not seem to be any string attached to it.' But I am afraid nearly everyone in our district gets The Times."

"No string attached to it" is the amazing part of the offer. Usually one does expect to find some string attached to an offer that sounds as good as The Times plan. The Times has done other unusual things in local newspaperdom, and it trusts to continue doing them from time to time. These unusual things have placed it in the position of supremacy with the people it now enjoys.

In spite of the fact that nearly four thousand families of Adams County are regular patrons of The Times and The Adams County News there have never been large profits made from the papers. The Times could be operated at an expense of $3,000 per year less than it now costs to produce the paper. This money goes back to the people in the paper they get.

The Times contains, daily, high class features by expensive men, men who are experts in their line and receive a corresponding remuneration for their efforts. It carries fifteen people on its payroll and it publishes matter of a nature that has never been attempted by a paper in a town the size of Gettysburg. Operating on a scale of this sort reduces the profits but it gives the people a paper they appreciate.

Subscribers know these things and when the new subscribers the schools secure learn of them they will remain patrons of The Times. More than a hundred schools are now engaged in the work of securing subscriptions. A few of these schools will not be able to get very many subscribers, but there is no school that cannot get some new ones. If it secures five or fifty new people it will retain the commissions it has earned—with no string attached. The prizes are there as an incentive to extra effort. They are large enough to command extra work and the school that sticks to it will be well rewarded for its endeavor.

A plan adopted in some districts, already well covered with Times subscribers, is to suggest the Adams County News as a gift to members of the family who have removed some distance from the county. Many of these people would not care for a daily paper from home but they would welcome a weekly account of local happenings. This idea has worked so well in some districts that we are glad to pass it along to the others who had not thought of it.

We will, during the course of the next week, make such suggestions in this column as we think may be of benefit to those who are really trying to earn as much as they can for their schools. It will be no small honor to be known as the best working school among a hundred of the county's most progressive districts.

ITALY SENDS MEN TO BALKANS

Army Is Landing on Albanian Territory.

TEUTON ADVANCE CONTINUES

Austrians Capture 12,000 Serbs in Two Days' Fighting—Bulgarians Defeated in Mountains.

London, Nov. 24.—The long expected participation of Italy in the Balkan campaign seems at last to be under way, as Italian troops have begun landing on Albanian territory, according to a Chiasso despatch to the Journal la Suisse, forwarded by the Central News correspondent at Zurich.

It is believed that the retreat of the Serbians and advance of the Bulgarians westward has aroused Italy to the danger it involves to her pretensions to domination of the Adriatic sea and that she realizes she must add the allies with armed forces if she is to maintain her position.

Although the Austro-German advance is pressing the Serbians hard, driving them towards the Kosovo plain, a defeat of Bulgarians by the Serbians in a battle in Central Serbia is announced in an official communication given out at the Serbian legation in Paris. Five Bulgarian cannon were captured.

The communication which gives partial confirmation of recent reports that the Serbians had assumed the offensive and defeated the Bulgarians follows:

"Battles occurred recently on the old Serbo-Turkish frontier. The most important encounters were fought to the west of Vellika Plana and Mount Zetovatz. We inflicted a defeat on the enemy at the latter point, capturing five mountain cannon."

Vellika Plana is twenty-five miles west of Nish, and thirty-five miles northwest of Leskovatz. In the region of which an important Serbian victory has been reported unofficially.

According to an announcement of Austrian army headquarters, General von Gallwitz's army pushed back the Serbians fighting northward of Pristina to within about thirteen miles of the city and took Sunday and Monday 12,000 prisoners.

Eastward and southeastward the Serbians are still tenaciously resisting the Bulgarians.

Austro-Hungarian forces in the bar valley advancing on Mitrovitzka Tuesday stormed powerful positions on the north side of the valley and one to the south, and gained full possession of the valley.

According to diplomatic advices received in Athens the Serbian government has been removed from Mitrovitzka to Prizren, in western Serbia, near the Albanian border. The diplomatic corps has gone to Petch, Monte negro.

Notable progress for the Bulgarians in the region southeast of Pristina, in Serbia, with the capture of 8,000 Serbians, forty-four cannon and twenty-two machine guns, was announced by German army headquarters. The Teutonic troops have taken 1500 additional prisoners and captured 530 cannon.

BATTLES WITH WILD CAT

Two Men Kill Catamount After Close Encounter.

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 24.—M. A. Milliron, a member of the state legislature of this district, and Clarence Walker returned from a hunting trip and reported killing a big wildcat after a desperate battle twelve miles east of here.

The men, armed only with shot guns, encountered the animal on a ridge near Gray's Furnace. It sprang at Milliron, who shot at it, inflicting only a slight wound.

As the cat leaped again Walker struck it with the butt of his gun. It fell to the ground, and, before it could recover, Milliron fired a charge through its heart.

Ships Bring $15,750,000 in Gold

New York, Nov. 24.—Two shipments of gold, valued at $15,750,000, which arrived here on the steamships Lapland and St. Paul, were landed. The St. Paul carried $3,850,000 in gold specie and $4,900,000 in bullion. Most of the gold was consigned to New York banking houses to pay for war munitions ordered by the British government.

E. K. Rowland Drops Dead
Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Edward K. HARD COAL RATE REDUCTION HELD UP

The Companies Get Another Month's Delay.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Reductions in hard coal rates ordered by the Interstate commerce commission to become effective December 1, were postponed until January 1.

This is the second postponement. The original orders were to become effective October 1, but on a showing by the railroads that the new tariffs required to be filed were complicated, a first extension of sixty days was granted.

A few weeks ago coal operators in the Wyoming region of Pennsylvania asked a rehearing in relation to the proposed rates on the smaller sizes of anthracite, alleging that the new orders were unjust when the rates were compared with those on the large sizes. There have been reports that the railroads might seek to overturn the decision through court proceedings, but so far there has been no evidence before the commission of such an intent. The new rates apply between the Pennsylvania mines and the Atlantic seaboard.

TABLE KNIFE IN STOMACH

Woman Swallowed It While in a Delirium.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The table knife which Mrs. Elizabeth Hochberger finally persuaded surgeons she had swallowed while in a delirium due to illness eight months ago, was taken from her stomach by an operation at the West Side hospital.

The knife was corroded and sawed along from the action of stomach acids, and physicians said that nature had made heroic efforts to digest the implement.

BLOWN TO PIECES IN BOAT

Two Men Killed When 150 Pounds of Dynamite Explode Off Shore.

Ocean City, Md., Nov. 24.—While dynamiting the piling of the fish pond of Henry E. Davis a mile off shore and six miles south of Ocean City, 150 pounds of dynamite in the supply boat exploded, instantly killing Harry Patney and Samuel Monkhouse.

The men and boat were literally blown to pieces. The cause of the explosion is unknown, as the boat was at a safe distance from the work. Both men leave families.

Paris Fire Loss $6,000,000

Paris, Nov. 24.—The loss in the fire in the annex of the Bon Marche, one of the largest department stores of Paris, is estimated at $6,000,000 francs ($6,000,000). Firemen continued to spray the burning ruins all night. The flames broke out afresh after it was believed they had been extinguished and the annex was almost destroyed.

ARREST FATHER OF GIRL CAPTIVE

Man Who Locked Up Daughter Held Without Bail.

WARRANT OUT FOR WIFE

Maryland Man Charged With Assault With Intent to Murder for Imprisoning Girl Eleven Years.

Easton, Md., Nov. 24.—Frank Marshall, the St. Michael's farmer, who is accused of imprisoning his daughter, Grace, twenty-eight years old, in an attic room at his farmhouse for eleven years to break up a school girl romance, was held without bail by justice of the Peace Sharp, for a further hearing.

Marshall was arrested at the home of a brother, W. O. Marshall, near Kirkham, about six miles from Easton. Sheriff Stephens and a half dozen constables had been searching for him. Marshall left his farm house after telephoning a challenge to the sheriff to come and get him. He threatened to shoot any one who came on the farm to serve a warrant.

Marshall accompanied the sheriff without a word. He first was taken in a motor car to the farm house where he spoke to his wife, Rose, a few minutes. "You had better wait for some money," she said to him as he stepped in the sheriff's car. "I don't need any to get out of this," replied the farmer.

A large crowd awaited the arrival of the machine, but there was no demonstration as the prisoner walked into the justice's office, and a minute later was escorted across the street to the Talbot county jail. Marshall, who is charged with assault with intent to murder, may not be given his further hearing for a week.

While Marshall was arraigned before Justice Sharp, a warrant was issued by Justice Dodson, of St. Michael's, for the arrest of his wife, the stepmother of Grace, on the charge of assault. The complaint was made by Miss Emma L. Davies, agent of the Children's Aid society. Sharp earlier has issued a writ for Mrs. Marshall, but, after conferring with lawyers, refused to permit it to be served. He declared the wife could not be arrested as a co-principal with her husband.

Grace Marshall, ignorant of the outburst of indignation spreading throughout the Eastern Shore because of her imprisonment, is lying at the home of Mrs. M. H. James, an aunt, and is responding rapidly to nursing.

Marshall denied he had imprisoned the girl to break up a school girl romance. At the same time, residents recall that her sweetheart was John Yewall, a farmhand, twice her age, who died five years ago. Yewall's death was said to be hastened by an impression that the girl was dead.

The Marshalls, the authorities say, announced about that time that their daughter was dead. They say they gave out this news when another daughter, much younger, died of diphtheria. School chums of Grace Marshall were fooled by the assertion, it is declared, and a group of her classmates sent flowers for the funeral.

The farmer, who is fifty years of age, and is a tenant on the farm of former State Senator Richard S. Dodson, a Democratic power in Talbot county, declared that he did not pen up the girl on account of the romance, but because she was insane. This statement, however, is contradicted by Senator Dodson, who recalled that about eleven years ago Marshall went to his home and said he intended "to shoot a man bothering his daughter."

"It's all a lie about me treating my daughter brutally," shouted Marshall. "She is crazy and we kept her at the farm to give her kind treatment. We could not hear to have her taken to a hospital, where she would be away from us." Mrs. Marshall said she personally attended Grace daily.

SEND NEW NOTE TO BRITAIN

Washington, Nov. 24.—Chicago meat packers finally have furnished information to the state department which makes it possible for the government to proceed further with representations to Great Britain against interference with shipments of American meat cargoes to European neutrals.

Unless plans are changed a new note will be prepared independently for further negotiations on contraband as soon as the packers present further data.

Suicide's Body Found Near Mill

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 24.—With one side of his head blown off by the body of H. Franklin Spotts was found by H. L. Burr, owner of a grist mill at Falls Mills, when he went to the mill to start the day's work. It is believed that Spotts put the muzzle of his shotgun in his mouth and pulled the trigger with his foot.

IGNATIUS T. T. LINCOLN

Federal Judge has denied a habeas corpus writ to Lincoln, who is a self-confessed German spy, and unless an appeal is taken he will be turned over to the British authorities on an extradition for forgery.

GERMANS FALL BACK TO SOUTH OF RIGA

Russians Admit Losing Ground in Galicia.

Petrograd, Nov. 24.—Renewed activity in the region to the south of Riga is reported in the Russian official statement, issued by the war office.

It is apparent from the statement that the Russians have begun a campaign to wear down the Germans on this front, the invaders losing ground in the fighting referred to.

There is a renewal of the fighting in Galicia, on the eastern bank of the Strypa river. The war office admits the enemy has crossed this stream but says the Russians have repulsed all attempts to advance.

Kovel, west of the Styra river in Volhynia, where the Russians have recently reported successes over the Teutonic adversaries, is being prepared for the possibility of an advance of the battle line westward, according to refugees from that city. The Germans are declared to have pushed forward labor rules into effect, pressing the work of constructing strong fortifications.

Military stores have been removed and the able-bodied population has left the city in the expectation of heavy fighting, the refugees state. A food shortage in the city is reported.

GERMAN DREADNOUGHT SUNK

Big New Battleship Destroyed by Mine in Baltic.

London, Nov. 24.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Rotterdam says: "One of Germany's newest dreadnoughts struck a mine Friday in the Baltic sea and went to the bottom. All the members of the crew were saved except thirty-three, who were drowned."

A despatch from Copenhagen says: The German ship Markgraf has been sunk, and it is believed this vessel may be the dreadnought referred to by the Amsterdam correspondent.

The Markgraf has been placed in commission since the war began. It displaced 25,575 tons, was 530 feet long and carried 1100 men.

Auto Run Down; Lawyer May Die

Glassboro, N. J., Nov. 24.—Three members of Cyrene Commandery Knights Templar, of Camden, on their way to visit Olivet Commandery, of Millville, were run down and injured one probably fatally, by an unidentified automobile. James B. Nixon, a Camden attorney, sustained probably fatal injuries.

Lodge Is Out for Weeks

Washington, Nov. 24.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, in a formal statement, strongly endorsed the candidacy of Senator Weeks for the Republican nomination for president. He also claimed the election in Massachusetts as a Republican victory.

British Wealth $130,000,000,000

London, Nov. 24.—The wealth of the British empire is $130,000,000,000, according to the estimate of the exchequer, announced in common reply to a question as to the nation's resources. The yearly income is $20,000,000,000.

Cossacks Routed at Teheran

Petrograd, Nov. 24.—Heavy loss of life has resulted from fighting between pro-German forces and Cossacks at Teheran. The Cossacks were attacked by gendarmes and "German hirelings" and compelled to retire.

SETS TIME LIMIT AND DIES

News of the death in the British trenches of Lieutenant John W. Garnett, graduate of the University of California and a leader in athletics, was received in Berkeley, Cal., by John Stroud, graduate manager, and showed that the young officer was killed within a few days of the time limit he set on his life.

In a recent letter Lieutenant Garnett said he had been promoted to be a range finder.

"The average life of a range finder is thirty days," his letter said. "I have been on the job seventeen days. You will know soon whether or not I outlast the average."

Fighting within a few miles of where Lieutenant Garnett died are his two brothers, one of whom was his classmate at Berkeley. All are under twenty-five.

Queer question? Not at all!

It does make you tired if you wait until the last week, day, hour, to do your shopping.

The best way to avoid that tired feeling is to

SHOP EARLY!

Of course, you'll shop early anyway, if you give a second's thought to the overworked clerks and deliverymen.

MOTHER IS GLAD DEFECTIVE DIED

Death Takes a Burden From Parents and Society.

PHYSICIAN REFUSED TO ACT

Could Probably Have Prolonged Life by an Operation—Praise and Condemnation Heard on All Sides as Jury, Consisting of American Public, Decides if He Was Right.

"I want my baby. I want him so. But I'm glad he's gone!"

When Dr. H. J. Haiselden of the German American hospital of Chicago heard Mrs. Anna Bollinger utter these words from her bed he felt vindicated. His conscience was clear, and he was glad that he had refused to operate and save the life of a tiny infant that was destined to grow up a cripple, an idiot and a burden to his parents and to society.

His action had aroused the entire country to a shout of protest on one hand and enthusiastic commendation on the other. Noted men and women in all walks of life alternately lauded and condemned the physician for refusing to attempt to save the life of the little defective.

The doctor had come to tell Mrs. Bollinger that the child had died. Although she had consented to "let nature act," the news had been kept from her because of her feverish condition.

Mrs. Bollinger's eyes filled with tears when she learned that the end had come. She turned her face toward the wall of her room and wept. Dr. Haiselden felt her pulse and smoothed her hair.

"You could have saved his life?" whispered the mother.

The doctor nodded.

"I've been thinking of it all night. I can't sleep," whispered the mother of the sacrificed defective. Again the doctor nodded. Downstairs the telephone kept up its incessant ringing. Men and women were clamoring to speak to the physician.

"I've been picturing him," went on the mother, "and wanting him. When did he die?"

The doctor told her. The mother buried her face in the pillow, and from its depths she whispered:

"I'm glad!"

A look of relief passed over the doctor's face, and he left the room.

The inquest proved a trial of Dr. Haiselden by his professional peers. Six noted physicians took their places in the jury box and listened to the testimony of Dr. Rheinhardt, the corner's physician. At the juryman's request an autopsy was performed under their eyes. Dr. Rheinhardt said after he had given his testimony that he had made discoveries.

Case Worse Than Supposed.

"We found the child was even more defective than Dr. Haiselden had said," announced Dr. Rheinhardt.

When the result of the autopsy performed by Dr. Rheinhardt was read to the jury it revealed that the Bollinger infant had come into the world suffering the following malformations and defects:

There was a paralysis on the left side from head to foot. On the right side the outer ear was formed, but it lacked the drum, and the child would have been deaf. There was no ear on the left side. On the right side there was no neck, the skin growing from the cheek to the shoulder blade. There were curvature of the spine and hemorrhage of the spinal canal.

Of the last trouble—hemorrhage of the spine—a score of physicians said it would have caused complete paralysis and death. There was no other trouble.

The jury consisting of the American public is hopelessly divided. The case will always be among those on which no just verdict can be rendered. Each person's individual conscience must judge. But few persons have placed themselves in the baby's place.

"If you were a defective child five days old destined to be an imbecile would you rather die or live?" asked a noted physician. And this question settled in the minds of many the perplexing question. The answer was usually, "I would rather die."

But Jane Adams, head of Hull House, one of the most gifted women in the world, differs with the physician. She has pointed out a long list of famous persons who were afflicted with infirmities at birth.

Where Plants Grow on Wires.

In Porto Rico, where the atmosphere is moist and balmy, air plants often lodge in the most unusual places and produce the most unusual effects while growing. Frequently they establish themselves on telephone and telegraph wires. The insulation rots in places and the plants take root, grow and thrive.

LET'S ALL BE THANKFUL TOGETHER

SO much of the good in this world is smiling on this big country of ours, that we all ought to be deeply thankful

Thankful for peace and prosperity; thankful for good crops; thankful for our ability to help the homeless ones; thankful that a huge shell isn't going to crash into our home any minute.

We're thankful that we have so many opportunities to serve the men in this community; we're thankful for their response to our efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders and Joseph Sanders, of Waynesboro, are visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Margaret Sanders, at Edgegrove.

Criticism of Modern Ways.

Today the tendency is, not to endeavor to make youths strong to resist, but to try to remove all stress from them. They must not be given hard tasks at school; indeed, the cry is that children must feel that school is play. They must not be taught obedience and respect, lest they be servile. They must have much amusement. All this is dependent upon the idea that life is meant for pleasure and that work is a curse.—Dr. Charles W. Burr.

London Conference.

The "London Conference" was an assemblage of the representatives of the chief European powers to reconcile Austria, Prussia and Denmark. It met in London, April 25, 1864, and held its sessions for two months, but without effect.

Never Give Up.

Be not discouraged or out of humor because practice falls short of precept in some particulars. If you happen to be beaten, come on again, and be glad if most of your acts are worthy of human nature. Love that to which you return, and do not go like a school-boy to his master, with an ill will.—Marcus Aurelius

Medical Advertising WHAT'S THE REASON

Many Gettysburg People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Gettysburg.

D. F. Arendt, Fourth St., Gettysburg, says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family and don't think there is any other kidney remedy quite as good. I suffered from kidney trouble for years. I had pains across the small of my back and in my sides and had to get up at night on account of kidney weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of all these troubles."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Arendt had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Medical Advertising GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Eat a Square Meal and Not Fear Indigestion

There are hundreds of people in Gettysburg who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the Gettysburg Times that The People's Drug Store is selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve. This remarkable dyspepsia remedy will relieve the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness, or the general play-out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble. Mi-o-na does not simply relieve, it aims to cure.

The People's Drug Store can tell you of many well known people in this city who this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit. No other dyspepsia remedy has made so large a percentage of cures as Mi-o-na. It is so large that The People's Drug Store stands ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds in Gettysburg today praising Mi-o-na because it does what it is advertised to do. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na, they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering.

Mulatto. The word "mulatto" is equivalent to the term "halfbreed." It usually refers to the cross between the white and black races. The term mulatto "negro" therefore means a person who is part negro and part white. The term does not apply to the crossing between other races.

DON'T BE THIN AND SKINNY

New Treatment Will Make You Fat.

"I have been thin for years and began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by use of Tonaline Tablets so I decided to try them myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else. I have put on just forty pounds during the last forty days, and never felt stronger. Tonaline Tabs, are a powerful inducer to nutrition, increases cell-growth, food, increases the number of blood-corpuscles and as a necessary result builds up muscles, and solid healthy flesh, and rounds out the figure.

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness, this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a beauty maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener.

Go to your druggist and get a box of Tonaline Tablets and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. Tonaline tabs, freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Tonaline tablets cost $1.00 for a 15-days' treatment, at druggists, or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass. For sale by The People's Drug Store.

The Place for Lovers.

Ian MacLaren wrote that Gaelic is the best of all languages for terms of endearment, that it has fifty ways of saying "darling." CAPT. BOY-ED IN SHIP PLOT

German Attache Spent $750,000 to Charter Ships.

CONSPIRACY WAS NATION-WIDE

New York, Nov. 24.—Assertion that Captain Boy-Ed, naval attache of the German embassy at Washington, directed the chartering and loading of some of the vessels which, it is alleged, were sent with supplies to aid German raiders in the early part of the war, and that $750,000 was spent under his direction for this purpose, was made by Roger B. Wood, assistant United States district attorney at the opening of the trial of four Hamburg-American Steamship line officers for conspiring against the American neutrality laws.

Chief of the defendants is Dr. Karl Buehn, former German consul general in New York, and more recently managing director of the Hamburg-American line. The other defendants are three subordinates of Dr. Buehn. At the opening of the session, it became known that an important witness for the government had left the jurisdiction of the United States a week ago, and is now in Bermuda.

The name of this witness and what cog he was in the government's machinery in the case were not disclosed by Mr. Wood, who said, however, that the man knew he would be wanted to testify. No reason for his trip to Bermuda could be learned.

In his opening address to the jury Mr. Wood charged that Captain Boy-Ed directed the chartering and loading of some of the vessels and that $750,000 for relief of German warships was spent under his direction here.

"We expect to show," Mr. Wood said, "that this conspiracy extended from New York and Philadelphia to San Francisco and New Orleans. We expect to show that Dr. Buehn employed a man named Kulekamp to clear two vessels in a hurry from Philadelphia at the very opening of the war, telling him that this was desirable because the Hamburg-American line should not appear in the transaction."

"We can prove that one of the vessels—the Berwind—was loaded with coal, bought from the Berwind Coal company, and we understand Dr. Buehn wanted Mr. Berwind, of the coal company, to clear the steamship, but that Mr. Berwind demurred and Kulekamp was called in to do the work."

"We shall prove that not long afterwards, Kulekamp received $750,000 from some place in Germany—he did not know where or from whom—that helped this money in two New York banks, and that soon after Captain Boy-Ed came to him and told him the money was to be spent under his (Boy-Ed's) direction."

"We shall show that $500,000 to $600,000 of this money was sent to San Francisco, where it was spent to charter and supply three ships with coal and provisions, and that these ships sailed out and met the German cruiser Leipzig and, perhaps, the Dresden."

"One hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars of this money, we shall show, was spent for the purchase outright of one of these vessels, and all the $750,000 was spent under Captain Boy-Ed's personal direction and instructions."

"We shall show that these defendants conspired at various meetings, to do all these things; that in so doing, they rode roughshod over the laws and treaties of the United States as contemptuously as if those laws and treaties had been mere scraps of paper."

Mr. Wood's address lasted less than forty minutes. William Rand, counsel for the defense, opened with these words: "So far as certain facts are concerned, we conceded they are just as Mr. Wood stated them to be."

"We concede that certain ships sailed from American ports to supply German warships, and admit that these ships were outfitted by Dr. Buehn and the other defendants, but deny the acts of the defendants constitute conspiracy," Mr. Rand added.

Hans Schmidt Must Die
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Hans Schmidt, the former priest who murdered Anna Ammiller and threw her dismembered body into the Hudson river in September, 1913, must expiate his crime in the electric chair at Sing Sing. The court of appeals refused to set aside the conviction.

German Peace Plea to Come
London, Nov. 24.—A despatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Bern says: "There is declared to be no doubted foundation for the report that Emperor William will make an open offer of peace through President Wilson after the emperor's coming state entry into Constantinople."

Denmark Prohibits Cotton Exports
Copenhagen, Nov. 24.—The Danish government has prohibited exportation of cotton goods and of casin in the dry state.

High Prices for Cashmere Shawls.
Weavers of cashmere shawls take two or three years to finish a pair of the very finest. These shawls fetch upward of $500 each in London.

Barber Not Excited Over Leg-acy Continues Work.

Mount Holly, N. J., Nov. 24.—George Hoehn, who has charge of the New Washington House barber shop received the surprise of his life when a New York lawyer called on him and made it known that he had fallen heir to a legacy of $15,000 under the will of Francis E. Miller, a New York millionaire, who died a short time ago.

The New York lawyer, Hoehn, believes, was a representative of Krauskopf & Krauskopf, of Nassau street. The barber said that at first he regarded the story as a joke. The attorney said that the representatives of the estate had searched in many places for Hoehn.

The barber is not building on the future, but still is shaving customers, to whom he relates his good fortune. He says if he gets the money he will get it invested securely and will not care if he does lose a day now and then.

VERDICT AGAINST TEACHER

Public School Instructor Loses Suit Brought by Girl Pupil.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 24.—A verdict of $119 was returned by a jury in Berks county court in favor of Evelyn Merkel, fourteen-year-old schoolgirl, in her suit against Warren P. Naffziger, a former public school teacher of Center township, for indignities she claimed to have been subjected to while she was one of his pupils in the Siegfried school, near Centerport, last January and February.

The affair created a sensation, resulting in the teacher's resignation. In addition to finding the cash verdict for the girl, the jury's verdict characterizes him as "guilty," and directs that he pay the costs.

The girl's stepfather, Charles M. Wirt, sued the teacher for $1000 for the alleged disgrace to his family, but his claim was not pressed.

GUARD BUILDINGS AT CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 24.—Most of the government buildings in Washington are being more carefully guarded than at any time since civil war days.

Officials preserve silence, but it is generally known that an attempt by fanatics is feared.

Persons entering the government buildings are closely scrutinized. Persons with bundles or packages are stopped and made to give an explanation. The guard at the capitol has not been increased, but the watchmen are unusually active.

An extra force of policemen is guarding the tunnel of the Union station and the viaduct approaches to it.

Britain to Have 6,000,000 Troops
Athens, Nov. 24.—Lord Kitchener has informed the Greek ministers that by next March England will have 4,000,000 troops and will also be able to arm and supply 6,000,000 Russians. "Therefore," said Kitchener, "the war can only end in the complete defeat of Germany."

HERE'S NATURE'S OWN REMEDY FOR CATARRH

Hyomei Relieves Catarrh Without the Use of Dangerous Drugs.
Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a real remedy for catarrh was known. Hyomei is an oil and its air is breathed through a small inhaler furnished with it for a few minutes a day, and during that time every particle of this Hyomei-laden air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with a powerful germ-killing and health-giving antiseptic. Sprays and lotions often cause disorders of the respiratory tracts of germs on some other diseases and never make a permanent cure of catarrh. But when the air of Hyomei penetrates to the inner air cells of the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen it not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but kills the bacilli in the blood, freeing the mucous membranes from poisonous microbes and giving perfect health. A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment. The People's Drug Store have so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that they agree to return the money to any purchaser who is not thoroughly satisfied.

To Make Dandruff Quickly Vanish

Try this Simple Inexpensive Home Treatment.
No one likes dandruff, but to get rid of it you must do more than wash your hair. The cause of dandruff lies not in the hair, but on the scalp and in the hair roots, and just as twice daily you use a germicidal tooth powder or cream to cleanse your teeth of germs, so you should use Parian Sage twice daily to drive dandruff from your scalp, prevent its return, protect your hair from falling out and no irritable scalp growth. Dandruff makes your hair fall out. Parian Sage makes dandruff fall out and your hair stay in. A delightfully perfumed hair and scalp treatment easily applied at home, very inexpensive and obtainable from The People's Drug Store or at any drug or diet count.

OUR YOUNG WOMEN

are so often subject to headache—are languid, pale and nervous—because their blood is thin or insufficient. They are not really sick and hesitate to complain, but they lack that ambition and vivacity which is their birthright. They do not need drugs—but do need the tonic and nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that makes richer blood, fills hollow cheeks, suppresses nervousness and establishes strength. Nourishment alone makes blood and Scott's Emulsion is the essence of concentrated nourishment, free from wines, alcohols or opiates. If mother or daughter is frail, pale or nervous, give her Scott's for one month and see the betterment. It has a wholesome, "nutty" flavor. Avoid substitutes. Wm. E. OLINGER Clerk Q. S.

An Important Witness

By JOHN Y. LARNED

Jimmie Conolly while fishing in a small lake by the railroad, hearing a train coming, looked up as it passed and saw the engineer, instead of having his hand on the throttle and his eyes on the track ahead, dancing a hornpipe on the floor of the cab. Jimmie was only thirteen years old. He was wise enough to understand that such conduct was irregular, but it did not freeze him with horror as it would an older person. At the moment there was a tug on his line, and he pulled out a fat pickerel. For the time being he forgot the dancing engineer.

Mrs. McCoy, the wife of the engineer of the train on which this scene occurred, lived near a station at which her husband was accustomed to stop for water. The train time at the station was 12:23, and she was accustomed to take her husband's dinner to him at that hour. On the day Jimmie Conolly saw him dancing a hornpipe Mrs. McCoy started earlier than usual from her house on a hill sloping down to the track with the dinner.

Before she had made half the distance she was astonished to hear the train coming. A few seconds later, going at a speed far greater than usual, it passed her, ignoring the station completely. As it went by she saw a sight that first caused her to drop the dinner pail, then topple over in a dead faint. Her husband was struggling with the stoker, who hit him on the top of the head with some iron instrument and dropped him on the cab door.

Jake Rogers, the stoker, stopped the train at the next station, five miles distant from the water tank. McCoy was found in the cab dying with a fractured skull. Rogers reported that McCoy, in whom he had recently noticed signs of insanity, had suddenly gone crazy and had dashed onward at a terrific split. Rogers, whose back was toward the engineer, turning suddenly, saw him dancing on the cab floor while the train was tearing along under no guiding hand. Rogers attempted to get by McCoy, who tackled him and, being the stronger man, was about to throw him from the cab. The fireman's life as well as the lives of hundreds of passengers was at stake. Rogers had a wrench in his hand and struck his adversary on the head with it, intending to stun him. Instead he fractured his skull, killing him.

Mrs. McCoy was sent for and as soon as she saw Rogers hysterically accused him of murdering her husband. The fireman was put under arrest and in time indicted for the murder of the engineer. There was no corroboration of his story further than certain passengers bore witness that they thought the train was traveling rather fast. But this counted for very little. Mrs. McCoy, who was very bitter against Rogers, found several sympathetic friends who were willing to testify that Rogers had been at enmity with her husband and had been heard to make threats. There was some foundation for this, for Rogers wished to be made an engineer, and McCoy for some reason unknown except to himself declined to help him secure the coveted promotion.

Rogers was grieved, and the evidence was strong against him. Only one person was found to testify that he had noticed strange actions on the part of McCoy, while a dozen swore that he was as sane as any man. The story told the jury by the bereaved wife through tears had a telling effect. Rogers was an orphan and had no one to influence the jury in his behalf by weeping for him. The trial was nearing an end, and the consensus of opinion was that he would be convicted, though there was sympathy for him by some of the passengers who had been on the train when the tragedy occurred and who considered that in any event they had had a narrow escape.

The trial did not take place near where the murder had been committed, and Jimmie Conolly heard nothing about it. One evening his father came in to supper and remarked:

"Rogers has been convicted."

"Who's Rogers?" asked Jimmie.

"The stoker who killed the engineer last August."

"What engineer?"

Mr. Conolly told his son the story of the murder. It brought back the remembrance of the sight he had seen while fishing on the lake.

"I seen an engineer last summer," he said, "dancin' in his cab while the engine was runnin' wild."

That was all Jimmie had seen, but it impressed his father as of possible importance in the McCoy case. The next morning he called up by phone Rogers' legal defender, who interviewed Jimmie, and by comparing dates and clock time discovered that Jimmie had seen McCoy on the day of the murder.

Rogers had not been sentenced, and the case was reopened. Jimmie was called to the stand, and after counsel for the defense had established the essential facts the boy told how he had seen the engineer dancing on the cab floor and the train running wild. Since the train passed the lake on which the boy fished several minutes before it reached the tank station, Jimmie's testimony corroborated that of the stoker.

Rogers was acquitted, and his first act after being freed was to take the witness who had saved him in his arms and hug him.

Rogers was promoted to be engineer and received a handsome purse made up by the passengers whose lives he had saved. Jimmie in time became his fireman and is now a division superintendent on the road.

Sarcasm.
She—"What's his penchant?" He—"Antiques." She (glaring through longnetted eyes)—"Is that one of them with him?" Judge.
